Securities Litigation: What European Investors Need to Know

March 14, 2008 - 14:30 GMT; 15:30 CET; 10:30 AM EDT

A wave of securities litigation in the U.S., prompted by market volatility and the credit crisis, will prompt a corresponding wave of settlements. This panel discussion will examine litigation trends and provide important information for European investors who may want to participate in securities class actions.
